Comments:

@@@My comment is aimed at the Surcharges when you use the Debit at a store. I could not find OP-1196. So I am chosing this site to address concerns the need to have the information given at the time of purchase. The banking induistry is counting on people not to pay attention to their schemes. They only want to maximize profits at any cost. Please make sure the people are not used as pawns due to their ignorance of the system. Is this what America has become. Please Forward this to the appropriate site if this is not the right site. Thank You.
